Kasimdzhanov-Kasparov Is On

The FIDE match between number one rated Kasparov and its Knock-out Champion Kasimdzhanov is on for Dubai after all. The match will be held between January 14th and February 1st. This is a week delayed from the original schedule. Currently Kasparov is playing in the Russian Championship and will have little time to prepare for his young opponent. The Prague Unification Agreement was to have the winner of the Kramnik-Leko match play vs. the winner of this match. But the opponent was to have been the previous FIDE champion, Ponomarev. Since that match did not occur, Kramnik has declared that the Prague Agreement no longer applies. Will we ever see Kasparov vs. Kramnik again? It doesn't seem likely.

Next Round for Position

Round 5 is the first position round of the year. It will be played on Dec 3rd. Clear-Cut, EDO and NGC will have byes but the other 6 teams will be paired depending upon their standing after Round 4. The pairings and colors for Round 5 will be announced immediately after the completion of Round 4. A new Schedule, Rev. C, will be posted on the website soon after.
