Position Round Tonight

Kasparov is Russian Champ

The 57th Russian Championship finished last week with an overwhelming 1-1/2 point win by Garry Kasparov. Although marred by the last minute defections of Vladimir Kramnik and Anatoly Karpov, the strength of the field was still impressive. Kasparov had 5 wins and 5 draws without losing a single game. Second was captured by the young rising star, GM Alexander Grischuk. They met and drew in the final round, as Garry had already won the tournament after the previous round. The following game demonstrates some of the high level of play that this tournament produced. Almost half the games were played to a decision which indicates that the players were in a fighting mood.
