Kramnik in Charge

Kramnik Takes Early Control

After 4 games Vladimir Kramnik leads Veselin Topalov by a 3-1 score in their unification match for the title of World Chess Champion. Kramnik won the first two games to take a commanding lead in this 12 game affair. All four gamescores appear on page 5 of this issue.

The match is presently taking place in Elista, Kalmykia, a former Soviet Republic. The winner of this match was to have qualified for the next championship cycle. However now that may be in doubt as FIDE President Ilyumzhinov has announced a change to the previously proposed Candidates cycle. Originally 16 players who are already named were to play in individual matches to eventually qualify 4 for the finals. Now it seems that they are proposing one 16-player round robin to accomplish this. All games will be held in Elista in April.

A vague reason was given for the change - the FIDE Board was having trouble getting sponsors and locations for those 8 to-be-named matches. As the FIDE Board was just reelected, it seems that they will continue to make up the rules as they go along.

Bob Rizzo Takes 3rd in USCCC

IM James B. Skeels and Julius Simon are co-winners of 2nd US Correspondence Chess Championship E-Mail Final. Each finished 6-2. Robert Rizzo was clear third with 5-1/2. Below is Rizzo's win vs. Doug Eckert which clinched third place.

New Schedule in Effect

The schedule found on page 6, Rev. C, corrects a shortcoming of the previous proposed schedule. LSF had back-to-back byes. This has been eliminated. Also the schedule was improved so as to eliminate the possibility that one team would have 2 byes before others had their first. To accomplish this, some rounds had to be modified and some moved around. Note that rounds 5, 7 and 12 are the ones with 3 teams having byes. Previously it was rounds 5, 9 and 12. This schedule will be used until the captains adopt an official version. Please discard all previous schedules. The features of Rev. C are:

- * Each team plays 10 rounds and has 2 byes.
- * "Position" rounds (5, 7 & 12) are pre-assigned so that teams play others of approximately equal strength based upon last season's results.
- * No team plays another more than twice.
- * Teams do not play each other on back-to-back rounds (regular season)
- * No team has back-to-back byes
- * No team has 2 byes before another has at least one
- * Colors are balanced at 5 whites and 5 blacks for each team.
