LSF Dominates

LIICL Replay!

A new feature appears on the LIICL website. In fact it has for several months now. It is the Experimental Games section created and launched by webmaster Jim Dwulit. It consists of a game viewer and a pick list of LIICL games to choose from. You can then play over games from past LIICL tournaments. If you would like your games added to this list please contact Jim. Games can be provided to him, preferably in ChessBase or pgn format. Just log on to the website:

www.liicl.com

and try it out. You might even be able to find some games played by an upcoming opponent! Here's a unique opportunity to study that player's trends and past weaknesses. Then you can use that intelligence to pounce on that future victim.

Thanks Jim for a great feature and making our website the ultimate archive for the LIICL.

LSF Leads the Way

A quick glance at the standings will tell you that LSF is one tough opponent. Captain Bob Standing has been constantly retooling that team over the years and it appears that he has now found just the right mix of veterans and new blood. To date his team has yielded one measly draw to the opposition. They are led so far by Charles Bonfante and Sal Celauro who are each a perfect 3-0-0 and lead Class A and Class B standings respectively.

New Dates Approved

We have received formal notice that all playing dates were approved by the Huntington Library. We will be in the Village Meeting Room for all but one of those when we will be playing in the Auditorium. The dates have been added to the revised LIICL Schedule (rev. D) which appears on the back page of this newsletter. A listing of the new playing appears on page 5

The Biz Chess Challenge

As part of the TECHEXPO '07 (Jan 10th, 2007, Crest Hollow CC, Woodbury) festivities the THE GREAT KNIGHTS chess club is organizing several events. Ira Leibowitz, who runs the club, is looking for volunteers from local companies to assist with the events - specifically, the BIZ CHESS CHALLENGE, where students of all ages will have the opportunity to play a friendly game of chess with local engineers and scientists.

During the games, students will have the chance to learn about their opponent's career background and company. Several other activities are planned involving students of chess who will be available to adult attendees for chess challenges during the Trade Show. There may also be a life-sized chess board for a tandem match. Too, students and adult attendees will have the opportunity to play a simul against The Great Knights' head coach, Grandmaster Gennady Sagalchik and against an accomplished chess student. For more info contact Ira at:
