We Have a USAT Winner!

LIICLers Comprise Three-Fifths of East's Winning Team "Beavis and Butt-Vinnick"

by Nick Panico III

Never in a million years did I think we would go 6-0. Evan Turtel hasn't played in years and I haven't been playing either except for at the league. Results were

FM James Critelli (2311) 4-0-2
 NMEvan Turtel (2206) 2-0-3
 Evan Rabin (2076) 1-1-2
 Nick Panico III (2022) 4-0-2
 Alt. Alan Kantor (2000) 2-0-1

Evan Rabin was the only one who dropped a game for us. It was in the 2nd round. He was playing Danny Rhode, (Michael's Son) and he knows him well so he was playing the game fast and lost a horrible game. We straightened him out and he played a fantastic game in Round 6 to hold Ricardi (Near 2200) to a draw.

James Critelli played amazing as always. George Berg got him for a draw in Rd.1 and then Critelli beat several strong Masters and drew GM John Fedorowicz in the last round

Turtel played great considering he hasn't played in a tourney in 6 years or so. He was a former child prodigy. He was master at 11 or 12 and won a national elementary title in 1984.

Alan Kantor was a great person to have on the team for experience and leadership. He helped us out tremendously and was able to keep Rabin, who is often erratic, to somewhat on a baseline.

I was happy with my play overall. I am tired now having played all 6 games.

We are setting up the national play-offs now with Carol Jarecki and the Marshall CC. Games will be on ICC.

Editor's Addendum: Nick Panico is active in the LIICL this season, Jim Critelli participated last season and Alan Kantor was a long-time member of the Grumman team before he moved upstate.

LIICL's George Berg also drew GM Bisguier in a later round. That is his second such conquest having previously drawn GM Sergey Kudrin in this tournament.

The team of Berg, Jim Dwulit, Dennis Hom, Ken Marley and Tony Sommese came in second in the best team name category with "Britney Offers No Draws."

CCC Breakthrough!

by Paul Montenero

Never in the 12-15 year history (Bob Rizzo would know the exact duration of our existence) of our team's history in the LIICL, has the Clear-Cut Computing team ever scored any match points off NGC. Known as the Citibank team, we seemed to get ousted from the playoffs in the first round by NGC. In fact, we might actually hold some kind of record as the team NGC faced the most in their first round of playoff play. And every single regular season match against NGC has ended up in a loss for Clear-Cut (usually 4-0)...until last night...when we drew the match!

The match started out just like old times when Rich Viale lost in 20 moves to Ken Marley. Rich demonstrated to several members that he had played a superior game - until he opted to start an attack on the wing while the center was still in a very dynamic position.

A quick check inside after the first hour revealed that Lamb and Berg seemed even on board 1; Proffman was being invaded by a passed pawn on the 6th rank; but Clay Wilkie sat shaking his head at his position against Mike Dorsky. Muttering to himself while Dorsky left the board to get some coffee, Wilkie clearly did not like his position. I really couldn't spot what was so bad for his side, but Mike proved Clay's anguish and won shortly thereafter. I have asked Mike for a copy of his game.

Another half-hour passed and with the score tied 1-1, I went in for another look. George Berg was locked in deep study of a move that he spent approximately 30 minutes on. At this point Terry Lamb was up a minor piece. At a quick glance, it seemed that George could recapture a bishop but create doubled rook pawns. A little further study of the board revealed that the recapturing pawn was pinned else his rook would fall to Terry's queen. Could Terry really have the upper hand!

At the same time, Paul Proffman's position had greatly improved. He managed to expel the advanced passed pawn, and was up a minor piece! The prospect of a win by Proffman nearly made this writer, and team captain, look like a genius with his unpopular decision to bench himself in favor of letting Paul Proffman play. The reasoning is simple - never in the long history of Clear-Cut's team existence has Paul Montenero ever won, or even drawn, a game against any NGC player.

In fact, I don't recall ever having an advantage during any game. So I gave Paul Proffman the opportunity to play and he nearly came through. "Nearly," because when faced with time pressure (11 minutes to Danny Wu's 16), he faltered and lost.

By this time, the Berg-Lamb game had drawn such a large audience that it was difficult to gain space to see. The game featured many hidden pitfalls as demonstrated by Terry later at Rosa's Pizzeria. In typical fashion, George had allowed his time to dwindle down to a few seconds over 2 minutes, while Terry had 15 on his clock. The dynamic nature of the position forced George to spend time too quickly. After his 36th move, George had 4 seconds, and he made his 37th move before the 5 second delay elapsed, but his 38th move was too indecisive to make in the allotted time and his flag fell. Terry had mating possibilities anyway, and an analysis by Fritz 7 revealed that Terry had the advantage since move 25.

Attached is the Berg-Lamb game.

Submit Your Best Game!

Effective immediately a new policy is in effect which governs how games must be submitted for consideration for the Best Game and Best Combination prizes. All such games with comments must be submitted in .pgn format. The address to which you must mail your entry is:

webmaster@liicl.com

No other entries will be considered. You can send in the games without annotations but then you risk that the evaluation committee may miss the point! Your entry must include in the title whether it is being submitted for Best Game, Best Combination or Both. The games will then be made available for viewing on the website. Just click on the "LIICL Games" link and you will be brought to the games viewer that has been set up by Jim Dwulit. Any game played under the auspices of LIICL play is eligible for either of these Ronnie Awards. That includes all regular season games, non-scheduled, rated games played during the season, all playoff games and all Individual Tournament games through Round 5.

The deadline for submitting is Midnight, May 20th. So there is still time for to create, annotate and submit that brilliancy.

2006-2007 LIICL Playoff Brackets

Complete Bracketology

As promised in the previous newsletter, we have attempted to clear up the complexities of the amended LIICL playoff system. As the brackets on this page shows, each match to be played has been assigned a letter. In round 1, match "P" will pit the eighth and ninth place finishers in the play-in contest to enter the quarterfinals. The winner advances to match "A" and the loser is now free to enter the Individual Tournament which is held concurrently with the playoff rounds. In round 2 the four quarterfinal ("A", "B", "C" and "D") matches will be held. The four winners advance to the semis in matches "E" and "F". The four losing teams will play in the bottom brackets shows as matches "H" and "I". In the semifinals, round 3, the winners of "E" and "F" will advance to match "G", for the Championship. The losers will then play each other in match "J" for third place overall. The winners of matches "H" and "I" will face each other in match "K" on finals night (round 4) with the winner taking fifth place. The losers of matches "H" and "I" will play in match "L" for seventh place. As always, those players who are alternates for their teams and are not participating in the team matches, may sign up for the Individual Swiss Tournament. All games in match play will double as Individual contest games. Round 5 is the Individual Swiss final round and all players who show will be paired per Swiss tournament rules.
