Anand Tops GM Field and is now Highest Rated

Anand Viswanathan lapped a World Class field to capture the FIDE Championship which ended in Mexico City this week. A number of Anand's games can be found on page 5. Technically he did previously hold the FIDE crown for about a year by winning one of the 132-man knockout tournaments. But that was not considered a legitimate title by many as the time controls were not classical. Also he did lose a championship match to Karpov in tie-break rounds after splitting the classical timed games. This title could also be short lived as there will be another set of matches including Anand, Leko, Topalov and Kramnik in the near future. In any event, the undefeated Anand climbed atop the FIDE list. Surprisingly, Vassily Ivanchuk has the second spot by a mere 2 points over former World champion Kramnik.

Alumni E is the Early Leader

Led by Julian Hodos, the Alumni E team has taken the first lead of the LIICL season. They are the only team not to have suffered a defeat in a single game. Close behind are the Chess Space Invaders and the Killer P's who each went 3-1. King Solomon's Foods had the bye so technically they are also undefeated. In a last minute switch, the BBB team has changed their name to "The Killer P's". Their captain is Pete Schilling, not Nick Panico as was previously reported in this newsletter. The Team Standings appear below. Due to the byes, teams are listed on a Points Per Round basis.
