Nakamura Wins Gibtel

A US GM Wins Again!

On the heels of Gata Kamsky's win in the World Cup which put him in the World Championship semifinals, another US GM has captured a very strong international chess tournament—Hikaru Nakamura won the Gibtel tournament. Nakamura won his final two games to take the top prize. Hikaru, who many of us watched grow up at the Nassau chess club, is the most promising of the new crop of young USA GMs. Within a few years we would not be surprised to see him follow in the footsteps of Kamsky and vie for the World Chess Championship.

Playoffs Start February 22

Round 12 will determine many of the first and second round playoff matchups. Upon completion of tonight's play, all teams will be seeded into the playoff bracket. Pairings and colors will be announced at that time as well as tie-break odds. The first round will match the 8th and 9th finishing teams. The winner of that match will then face the top seed in round 2. All players who are not participating in any playoff match are welcome to enter the Individual tournament which will be held concurrently with the playoffs. Round 1 of the Individual commences at the same time as Round 1 of the playoffs, on February 22nd.
