Silver Anniversary

25th Anniversary of the LIICL

On Wednesday, January 14th the LIICL is 25 years old. We will celebrate the Silver Anniversary of the LIICL tonight. Festivities will commence at 6:00 PM. All members past and present are invited to come down and share their experiences in the LIICL over the past quarter century. We plan to have a cake and all first year charter members from the LIICL who attend will be asked to blow out the candles - not a celebration of the end of an era - but instead the onset of the next 25 years.

The Old Lady Has Retired

It may not be apparent to you (hopefully not) but the machine that has produced The League Leader since 1993 has gone to pasture. It still runs but memory problems prevent importing of files and the slow down of the processor in recent years has made the production of this newsletter sometimes an all day affair. But all is not bad. The publishing software has been upgraded and it will be easier to produce larger issues: perhaps a 25 year annual is in our future!

Nakamura Places Third at Gjøvik

The Aker Chess Challenge concluded on January 5th in Gjøvik, Norway. It was won by Peter Svidler who faced Magnus Carlson in the final. Coming in third was US GM Hikaru Nakamura. Hikaru cut his teeth at the Nassau club and is now a World Class player who some day may challenge for the title. In the consolation match he beat Lie with the White pieces so only needed a draw in game 2 to sew up third place. After being down a pawn, Hikaru makes a couple of daring sacrifices to force a perpetual. Sometimes games which are drawn are more exciting than those that are won routinely. The two aforementioned games follow:
