Let Them Eat Cake?

The 25th Anniversary of the LIICL

On Wednesday, January 14th the LIICL was 25 years old. We celebrated the Silver Anniversary of the LIICL with speeches and recollections of the past years. One charter member of the LIICL., Clayton Wilkie, was also a participant in the old Industrial League of the 50's, 60's and 70's.

LIICL Charter member Clay Wilkie

Clay gave us some gems about the old days

The Old Lady Has Not Retired!

It was reported in the previous issue of The League Leader that the computer which produced these newsletters was retired. Well not so soon. The new computer could not convert to pdf. So we needed to keep the old girl running a bit longer!

prior to the reformation of the present league

Roger LaFlair, perhaps the second strongest player in LIICL History behind Anna Zatonskih

in 1984. But not everything went as planned. The festivities started on time at 6:00 PM but instead of a sheet cake, there was an assortment of Italian cookies in its place. It seems that the order got mixed up at the baker and put into the Saturday pile instead of Friday. So if you couldn't make it to the LIICL on Jan. 9th and can make it on the 16th, you are in luck. The baker insists that the cake will be ready for pick-up this time. And yes - the cookies were on the house.

The festivities also included some discussion by Jim Dwulit and Bob Rizzo concerning the evolution of the rating system and some of the humorous conflicts that have come up over the years. Finally a moment of silence was held to reflect on those members who are no longer with us. We trust they are in another league meeting along with us every other Friday. (more pictures on page 5)
